Owner: Susan Leonard, Sandstone Labradors

Two breedings will be conducted, with either the bitch and stud dog present on site or with two certified-viable chilled semen collections which will be shipped to a licensed veterinarian chosen by the bitch owner or directly to the bitch owner. All costs connected with the purchase of the semen, collection/shipping kits, the actual collection, all shipping fees and insemination will be borne by the bitch owner. Payment can be remitted to lotsoflabs@comcast.net via PayPal.

All veterinary fees associated with the preparation, testing and timing of the bitch by serum progesterone blood testing will also be the responsibility of the bitch owner. It is very important that the bitch is accurately timed and the appropriate progesterone testing done to predict ovulation. Accurate timing is the most critical factor in the success of any breeding.

The litter registration application will be completed by the bitch owner and sent to Sandstone Labradors along with a check or money order payable to the AKC or foreign breed registry for the required fees, for "owner of sire" signatures. Litter registration may also be done online at akc.org. Sandstone Labradors will then forward the forms and check or money order to the AKC or foreign breed registry.

Sandstone Labradors as the owners of the stud dog is not obligated to sign the application for registration of the litter until all associated veterinary, shipping, collection and stud fees are paid in full.

This contract is terminated if the stud dog is not available for return service or if the bitch changes ownership. The right of full return service is the option of the stud dog owners and is not transferrable.

The above conditions are mutually agreed upon by the bitch owner(s) and the stud dog owner(s) as evidenced by their signatures below.
